PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Happy 2013!

A fun time was had by all who attended our Holiday Banquet. The gift exchange (with stealing allowed) was fun. Some of us got a treasured item, others not so much. Thanks go to Michi Ikeda, Chet Specht and Saralyn Lowenstein who organized the event and to Fred McCall and Joyce Nunamaker-McCall who entertained us with their wonderful music.

I was pleasantly surprised by the large turnout for our December general meeting, only a few days before Christmas. I'm sure that's because three of our favorite MVAL artists, Pete Morris, Walter McNall and Mark Wood, demonstrated their techniques for us. Or perhaps it was the beautiful music provided by Fred McCall, Joyce Nunamaker-McCall and Steven Radice! Or perhaps it was the joy of getting together with good friends over the holidays. Thank you to Mary Ann Osko, Laural Erpenbeck and all of the people who brought delicious treats to share.

I've just returned from jury day for our 60th Anniversary Members Exhibition at Cal Poly Pomona and I am so impressed with all of you. Gerald Brommer had a tough job deciding among the excellent paintings, but he did a masterful job. By the time you get this, the well-deserving award winners will have been announced (you will find a list of them in this issue of Art & the Artist). We received 195 entries and the show is absolutely terrific. A BIG thank you goes to Armando Ruiz, Exhibition Chair, and his able assistant and wife, Deanne Ruiz, who have done a most excellent job organizing this event.

It's a new year, a time of new beginnings. I'm hoping that 2013 will bring renewed zest to your artwork and lots of time with paintbrush in hand!

Julie Crouch
President

SCHOLARSHIP

As the New Year gets under way, we look ahead to again supporting arts education and scholarships. As in past years at the June meeting we salute award recipients and have the fun of the Raffle Extravaganza. For those new to MVAL, many beautiful paintings and other art related items are donated and then raffled that evening.

This venture is made possible by pitching in and looking around your home and studio to see what you might contribute.

As you clean and organize after the holidays, if you come across a painting or some good condition art related items which are no longer in use, would you think about donating for this event? Raffle TICKETS go ON SALE at January meeting.

IN MEMORIAM GENEVA LAWRENCE

MVAL Lifetime Member, Geneva Lawrence passed away December 9th. She was 103. She had been sick with a cold for about a week and then suddenly went downhill. She died peacefully in her sleep in a Hospice. She had a very long, full and happy life. Geneva had been a MVAL member since 1976.

The following bio was published on the occasion of her 100th birthday.

September 7, 2009

LOCAL FASHION ARTIST CELEBRATES 100TH BIRTHDAY

Geneva (Kindwall, Limpus) Lawrence will be celebrating her 100th birthday this September 29th, 2009. Born GENEVA KINDWALL, she was raised in the small Midwestern town of Alta, Iowa. Geneva's first art education was in Chicago at The Chicago Academy of Art and The American School of Art. Geneva started her 40-year career as a Fashion Illustrator in Chicago in the 1930's, later moving to Indianapolis where she met her husband, Robert Limpus, a furniture designer. After WWII, she and her family moved to New York City where she worked as a free-lance fashion illustrator and her husband opened a furniture design studio. She free-lanced for Altman's, DePinna's, Abraham & Straus, among others. She also had illustrations in an assortment of fashion magazines like Vogue, Harpers, Glamour, and Mademoiselle. In 1961, after her husband's death, Geneva Limpus and her two daughters moved to California. She was brought to Los Angeles by Robinson's department store to do the popular New York art style of "ink wash". She remained at Robinson's for many successful years as one of their high fashion illustrators. In the 70's she moved back into the free-lance world to work for such major department stores as Bullocks and May Co. in Los Angeles, Buffums in Long Beach, and Liberty House of Hawaii. She also created a "fashion art" column for the Pasadena Star News entitled "Fashions by Geneva" which covered styles of local stores. In the mid 1980's after an unusually long and successful career in the fashion industry Geneva Lawrence, now married to her second husband Peter Lawrence, retired to embark on a new career as a watercolor painter. Because of her expertise in ink wash, the transition to watercolor came naturally. She has been in many exhibits in the L.A. area and has won many awards for her figure and landscape painting. She was a member of the San Gabriel Arts League, Las Artistas Art Group, and a Life Member of the Mid-Valley Arts League. In 2000, 24 of her original fashion illustrations were accepted into the archive of the Costume and Textiles Collection at Los Angeles County Art Museum. She has been a resident of South Pasadena for over 50 years where she was a very active member of the South Pasadena Women's Club.

ABOUT THE COVER

The cover art was created by Geneva Lawrence in 1966 and appeared in the Spring Fashion Section of the Pasadena Star News. Thank you to Geneva's daughter, Justine Limpus Parish for providing it.
