PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings fellow artists

October was a great month for Mid Valley Arts League.

JoAnn Formia and Jan Wright are conducting a wonderful watercolor workshop series in the Morro Bay area in honor of Chris Van Winkle, with the help of Caroline Van Winkle.

The feedback I've heard is that the first part of the workshop was excellent and there is a part two the first week of November, which I'm also involved with as a demonstrator. The hope is that the Chris Van Winkle workshop will become an annual event.

Also in October, MVAL was treated to an outstanding demonstration from Joseph Stoddard at our monthly gathering. I was struck by the articulate way he makes watercolor sketching available to all of us. His approach makes watercolor less intimidating, I think.

The annual Watercolor West exhibit in Brea began in October and extends through December 18th, and a number of MVAL members entered their work in this prestigious event. Fran Brayton, Julie Crouch, Tom Fong, Deborah Friedman, Albert Seton and Fealing Lin all had work accepted into the exhibit. Fran Brayton and Deborah Friedman won awards, and Tom Fong received special juror recognition.

November's monthly meeting will be on the 16th at the Good Shepherd Methodist Church, 7:30 pm. Our demonstrator will be JoAnn Formia, one of our members who has been a great inspiration to many of us. It is evident from following her work that here is person who constantly pushes her own boundaries as an artist

Don't forget to bring a painting for the monthly contest at the meeting. See you there!

Pete Morris

NOVEMBER PROGRAM

JoAnn Formia

"Oscar Van Young and Robert Uecker were instrumental in reviving my interest in art. Although, I have always had an interest in drawing and painting, it seems life got in the way. I find painting to be a never ending journey. I will never begin to know everything there is to know and learn about painting, regardless of the medium.

I have had the pleasure of painting at Manzanar National Monument with Henry Fukuhara for the past 5 years, and have enjoyed two trips to Mt. Carmel in Utah to paint with Milford Zornes. These men are two of California's Icons on the Art Scene. I have also had the great experience of painting with at least 50 others on a trip to Canyon de Chelly. Again, with many fine and accomplished artists. These trips allow artists to learn from each other and enjoy the camaraderie of people with the same interests. A very inspiring and enriching experience.

I also do commissioned watercolor renderings and black and white drawings of properties for local realtors, given as gifts to their clients.

I recently received a statement via e-mail, "Creativity is allowing yourself to make mistakes. Art is knowing which ones to keep" That is a question that is always present.

NEW MEMBERS

Rosemary Sage
Arcadia, CA

Rosemary got her Art Degree from Scripps College where one of her teachers was Millard Sheets! She has been painting for many years, she went to Millard's home where she painted one of his horses. She likes to paint landscapes and portraits. She is presently working in watercolors and has been taking classes with Pet Morris. She is a returning member, so people who have been around MVAL for a while may remember her!

COVER ART FOR 2016-17

Still need Cover Art. I would like some people who have never submitted a painting for the cover to participate! The cover doesn't have to be a large finished painting. Something that came out well in your sketchbook or a small plein air painting is welcome!

PLEASE try to include a short statement about the painting... at least the location and medium!

DECEMBER PROGRAM and HOLIDAY BOUTIQUE

We are going to have a group of MVAL artists demonstrate during the meeting.

As we have in the past, we will also be holding our Holiday Boutique.

If you have small paintings, cards of your work, craft items that you would like to sell, tables will be provided for you to display your items.

If you plan to do this, please let Michi Ikeda know ahead of time so that we know how much table space to provide.

Joseph Stoddard Workshop

Saturday, January 21, 2017

Introduction

As artists we need to realize that we can control the composition, color, and value of a scene to make a better, more compelling image. For this workshop, we will use landscapes, urban scenes and architectural subjects as our reference.

Overview

We will begin with a brief discussion of art supplies needed for both studio and location work, and discuss the use of the sketchbook as a good practice tool.

Using a photo as our reference, we will prepare small thumbnail sketches to determine value and composition options.

We will discuss interpreting color and deviating from reality to make a statement that is our own, developing small color studies as a warm up to the finished piece.

From these value, composition and color studies, we will develop our final painting on a half-size sheet of watercolor paper. There will be a demonstration of each phase with time afterward for the student to implement the discussion points on a painting of their own, following the handout sketch or working from their own photo reference.

Students should bring their own materials ready to work in class.

About the Artist

My work is about capturing city scenes, landscapes, architecture, and gritty urban-scenes in pen and ink, watercolor, pencil and pastel.

My goal is to capture the moment, the color of light, the feeling, and mood of my subject. I want the final paintings to look as if they were torn from the pages of the sketchbook: full of rough energy and texture. Pencil lines, paint splashes and splatters, and errant pen strokes are all part of the piece. Sometimes I will add notes, a study sketch, sounds, fragrances and weather. These touches add immediacy and an accessibility that people can relate to, and engage with.

I am a principal at SKA Design, an environmental graphic design firm in South Pasadena. I have been featured in Artist's Sketchbook Magazine, American Artist Watercolor Magazine and American Artist's Watercolor Highlights and am the author of three books:

Pasadena Sketchbook, Redlands Sketchbook and Expressive Color. I taught graphic design at Art Center

College of Design for many years and am a frequent lecturer and demonstration artist throughout Southern California.
